

Earth Day Bee Friendly at Earthwise

FEED THE BEES

A Feed the Bees initiative

April 21 "Vanishing of the Bees" an exclusive documentary premiere

Don't miss this screening of the award winning film narrated by Ellen Page
At Delta Museum & Archives annex bldg - 4918 Delta Street. Show time 7pm

Doors open at 6pm. Seating is limited. Pre-purchase your tickets through Earthwise.
$5 in advance/$10 at door For tickets or information: 604-946-9828

April 22 "Bee Friendly" at the Earthwise Garden and Farm 6400 3rd Ave, Tsawwassen 10am until 2pm

Talks and Tours

"Native Bee Safari", discover native pollinators with Master Bee Keeper Brian Campbell	10:30 am
"Bee Hive Demonstration" - watch resident beekeeper Julia Common in action	11:30 am
"The Buzz about Bees", talk by Provincial Apiculturist Paul van Westendorp	12:30 pm
"Farmscaping Tour", join Farm Manager James Gates and learn how we provide habitat and food for bees and other wildlife at the Earthwise farm.	1:30 pm

Activities

Little Bees - a bee friendly planting activity for kids aged 8 and under	Kid's Corner
Face Painting - get buggy with insect inspired themes	Kid's Corner
The Taste of Honey. How the flavor of honey changes with the bees' diet	Farm Store
Life of a Delta Bee Display	Delta Museum & Archives Tent
Planning your Bee Garden	Nursery
Find out what to plant to attract bees and purchase bee plants or bee garden starter kits
Garden Tours at 11, noon and 1pm
See what's in store at the Earthwise Farm Store!	Farm Store

Food

Join us at the Kitchen Garden for a warm drink and honey based treats fresh from our Earth Oven.

By Donation

Entrance to this event is free because we want to raise awareness about the important issues facing bees. Please show your support by donating generously for the activities that you enjoy. Thank you!

A bee is 2.5 cm long with a brain the size of a large peppercorn. Yet they can fly 10 km away from the hive to forage & then make a straight line home. How do they do that?
Elizabeth Capaldi